

How it works

1

A patient's request comes in through a structured form submitted online, over the phone or by visiting the practice.

2

All requests enter a shared inbox that's fully integrated with your clinical system.

3

Your team action requests, triaging and signposting patients based on clinical need.